

GRIMM, Chester P.

B: 13 January 1914 Glasford, IL

D: 22 January 1943 English Channel

Hometown: Farmington, Illinois

Rank: 2nd Lieutenant

MOS: 1055 - Pilot, single engine fighter

Unit: 335th Fighter Squadron

Aircraft:

N/A

4th Service: 17 October 1942 – 22 January 1943

22 JAN 43 Squadron bounced by German fighters over the Channel while escorting RAF Bostons. Grimm shot down during the engagement. ASR forces were unable to locate him. Body reportedly found in a French Cemetery after the war and reinterred in Madingly Cemetery in Cambridge.

Madingly American Cemetery
Cambridge, England

Victories:

None

Decorations:

Purple Heart