

KAKERBECK, Robert L.

B: 1922 NY

D: 4 June 1944 near Castle Camps, ENG

Lt. Kakerbeck Killed In Crash Of Plane

ELMSFORD—Lieutenant Robert L. Kakerbeck, twenty-one, of Worthington, has been killed in a plane crash in the European area, according to a War Department telegram received by his father, John Kakerbeck, New York architect. Lieutenant Kakerbeck was a Mustang pilot.

The Herald Statesman (Yonkers, NY)
14 June 1944

Hometown: Greenburgh, New York

Rank: 2nd Lieutenant

MOS: 1055 - Pilot, single engine fighter

Unit: 336th Fighter Squadron

Aircraft:

None assigned

4th Service: 3 June 1944 – 4 June 1944

4 JUN 44 Crashed while on a local training flight 3 miles east of Castle Camps.

KIFA.

Buried at Cambridge American Cemetery
Cambridge, England
Plot E Row 2 Grave 73

Victories:

None

Decorations:

N/A