

FELLOWS, Robert S.

“Bob”

B: 30 June 1915 Manchester, NH

D: 7 November 2015 Peterborough, NH

"Thanks for all the cooperation & hard work Fellows. See you again sometime. Colonel Pete"

- the inscription on page 53 in Robert Fellows' copy of the book "War Eagles"

Hometown: Manchester, New Hampshire

Rank: Major

MOS: Station S-4; OIC Maintenance & Supplies

Unit: 45th Service Squadron

Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron, 33rd Service Group

4th Service: January 1943 – July 1944

Adjutant, Detachment A Headquarters Squadron. 33rd ASG

11 MAR 43 Assigned to Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron, 33rd Service Group

Post 4th Fighter Group:

Participated in military government in Germany, followed by fifteen years in the Reserves. Retired as a Lieutenant Colonel.

In banking for 28 years, retiring in 1976 as CEO of the Glastonbury Bank and Trust Company.

Decorations

Presidential Unit Citation, American Defense Service Medal, European Theater Campaign Medal, American Theater Campaign Medal, World War II Victory Medal.