

DUKE-WOOLLEY,

Raymond M. B.

B: 16 October 1916

D: October 1991 Chichester, ENG

Hometown: N/A

Rank: Wing Commander

MOS: N/A

Unit: 4th Headquarters Squadron

Aircraft:

N/A

4th Service: 12 September 1942 – December 1942

RAF Squadron Leader with temporary rank of Wing Commander placed in operational command of the 4th Fighter Group at the time of its transfer to the USAAF. Was the first British pilot to be awarded the American Distinguished Flying Cross.

Victories:

None with 4th

Post 4th Fighter Group:

Eventually attained the rank of Group Captain

Decorations:

Distinguished Service Order, Distinguished Flying Cross (with Bar, British), Distinguished Flying Cross (American), 1939-45 Star, 1939-45 War Medal, Defense Medal.